

WASHINGTON BEATEN

Baltimoreans Defeat Local Tennis Cracks.

C. DOYLE LOSES TO COLSTON

Pick of the Washington Team Shows

None of the class that has characterized his play on previous occasions—H. Doyle wins well-earned match from Thomas Colston.

Baltimore, Md., July 3.—Baltimore defeated the Washington tennis cracks, 8 points to 4, this afternoon at the grounds of the Maryland Country Club.

In the singles the Baltimoreans defeated the visitors, 5 points to 3, and turned the trick again in the doubles by winning, 3 to 2 to the Washingtonians.

One of the surprises for the visiting team was the defeat of their crack team mate, C. Doyle, who was defeated by F. C. Colston in straight matches by easy scores. In the opening of the play it was seen that Mr. Doyle was playing to form. Mr. Colston had him guessing throughout the first set, and he won handsily, with 6-2. In the second game, Mr. Doyle strengthened perceptibly, for his racket work was fine, but he was not prepared for the Garrison finish of Mr. Colston, who swept him off his feet in the feature game of the day.

H. E. Doyle a Winner.

The second match, between H. E. Doyle, of Washington, and Thomas Colston, of Baltimore, resulted in a victory to the former after a struggle. The local player was not able to stall the excellent playing of the visitor in the first game, for he went down to a decisive defeat, 6-0. In the second match, however, Mr. Colston used his cross-court play to perfection, turning the tables on the Washingtonian, after a pretty contest, 6-8.

The third and decisive game was won by the visitor, who, through working an uphill game toward the close of the set, finally won out in one of the most exciting tests of the day, 9-7.

Miss Wagner, of Baltimore, won the third game in straight matches, defeating S. Gordon, of Washington, 6-3 and 6-1, in well-played sets. The visitor was unable to fathom the play of the local man, and lost repeated opportunities to make the score.

Lynchburg Wins Rank Game on Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., July 3.—The game between Lynchburg and Norfolk developed into a farce this afternoon. Lynchburg winning out in the tenth inning, 3 to 2. Neither team showed any ability at the bat, and errors of the rankiest kind were in abundance. Lynchburg scored the winning run on Temple's wild throw of an easy one from Hooker's bat to first, the runner taking third on the misplay, and he went home on a passed ball by Egan.

Score: Lynchburg, 3; Norfolk, 2.

Batteries—Dillon and Pratt; Temple and Munson. Umpire—Mr. Mac.

Fight in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., July 3.—Richmond won two well-earned victories over Portsmouth this afternoon, the first game being marred, however, by Manager Guile, of Portsmouth, who made a vicious attack upon Umpire Evans.

No such conduct was ever displayed in Broad Street Park than that enacted by Manager Guile. Two strikes, both of which looked good, had been called on him in the first inning of the opening game. Without hesitation he walked out to the center of the diamond, and there, while players of both teams and several thousand spectators looked on, he showed a temper, one after another, at the hands of the umpire.

When four police officers took hold of the offending player, he attempted to resist them, but was overpowered. He was taken to the second police station, where he was held by one of the officers of the force. After being held there later and fined. After being held there later and fined.

He was released by the police, and returned to the ball field and was allowed to continue in the game by Umpire Evans. He was hissed by the spectators each time he came to bat.
